Queralt Llc Completes Acquisition Of Systems Rx

WALLINGFORD, CT, MARCH 22, 2007: Queralt LLC a leading provider of Asset Management Solutions has acquired Connecticut based, Systems RX.

March 21, 2007 - PRLog -- "The acquisition of Systems RX enhances our ability to provide innovative asset management solutions to our customers." emphasized Michael Queralt, Managing Director of Queralt LLC. "It provides us with new technology, customers and an experience management and technical team. We see this as the start of a great opportunity to expand our offerings via acquisitions and we continue to evaluate opportunities in the marketplace."

"By integrating our RFID solutions with Systems RX asset lifecycle and cost containment technology, we have developed the foundation to provide customers with tools and processes that help them maximize their assets." Highlighted John Van Steenburgh, Managing Director of Queralt LLC. "Our innovative approach of integrating diverse technologies, like RFID, Barcode, RTLS and WiFi with current software platforms, allows us to provide an entire solution that makes management of asset effective and unobtrusive. Allowing our customers to focus on utilizing the information instead of spending time deploying and managing the technology, our solution provides an immediate financial return, while highlighting inefficiencies, reducing shrinkage and maximizing asset utilization."

Queralt LLC deploys close loop asset management solutions that enable companies to identify, track and secure assets by employing a multitude of technologies, including active, semi active and passive RFID, WiFi, biometrics and barcode devices.

"With the acquisition of Systems RX, Queralt LLC can now provide an all encompassing solution, one which includes people, processes and technology." Emphasized Michael St.Hilaire, President of Systems RX. "Our customers are very excited about the possibilities that this approach can have on their business."
