Cohasset Jewelers Named Best Jeweler by South Shore Living magazine.

Isn't all jewelry alike? Aren't all jewelry stores the same?

Not according to South Shore residents and readers of South Shore Living magazine who voted to elevate Cohasset Jewelers again to the Best Jeweler category for 2007. The magazine has 14,942 readers.

The accolades are not new to family-owned Cohasset Jewelers. This is the stores second consecutive year winning the honor. These awards follow an award winning 2005 year when they also won an "Editor's Choice" award from South Shore Living magazine and a "Best of Boston" designation as "Best Jeweler" from Boston Magazine.

"Our unique combination of antique and contemporary collections impresses even the most discerning buyer," reflected Mark Cirone, 2nd generation of the Cirone family to manage the store. He added, "Whether they are choosing diamond engagement rings, heirloom or contemporary jewelry, it is gratifying to have consumers acknowledge that they appreciate the personal assistance and our conservative prices."

Cohasset Jewelers, located on Route 3A, 790A Chief Justice Cushing Highway, Tedeschi Plaza in Cohasset, is celebrating their 25th Anniversary this year in their Cohasset store.
