Dated: Mar 18, 2007

Xzibit features in the “Best TV Show” category for the highly popular MTV show, “Pimp My Ride”.

The 2007 list of nominations for the Annual Urban Music Awards has been released in time for the July 7 ceremony. The Urban Music Awards will be held at the Hammerstein Ballroom in New York and will be attended by more than 2,500 Artist, DJs, producers, promoters, record labels executives and urban and hip hop music fans from across the country.

Xzibit features in the “Best TV Show” category for the highly popular MTV show, “Pimp My Ride”. Xzibit will face stiff competition with the likes of Dave Chappelle and his worldwide parody comedy series “The Dave Chappelle Show”. Xzibit is also up against Ice T with “Ice T's Rap School” and Nick Cannon’s “Wild and Out”.

Celebrating its 5 year anniversary in 2007, the Urban Music Awards USA is proud to launch in the US with the Urban Music Awards has been a successful award ceremony which started in the UK in 2003 and to date is the only ceremony which is 100% nominated and voted for by the public. The ceremony was born out of the need to recognize the achievement of Hip Hop, R&B, Soul and urban music artist, labels, radio stations, within different countries and continents around the world.

The Urban Music Awards is the 1st and only worldwide people’s choice awards ceremony. It’s an awards ceremony who has gained credibility by turning ‘music buyers’ to ‘decision makers’ giving them the power to decide on who gets nominated and who gets to win one of our coveted trophies. We have been accepting nominations and have received a total of 570,000 submissions by urban music lovers from the USA, Europe and Asia and we are proud to announce these year's nominees.
