Don Conrad of KansasCity, KS, and Jeffrey Sloe of Twinsburg, OH, two brothers-in-Christ, have joined forces to Begin a Home Based Business

KANSAS CITY, KS (March 29, 2007) Don Conrad, a home based business entrepreneur, announced today that he was teaming up with Jeffrey Sloe to begin a home based business. Mr. Conrad has decided to share his home based business, Predator Marketing, with his Internet friend. The business will go under the name, "Begin a Home Based Business."

Mr. Conrad has been part of the Mentors-on-a-Mission, a division of Predator Marketing, and now a part of "Begin a Home Based Business", for a couple of years but has not had the time to promote the online marketing business. Teaming up with Mr. Sloe will allow Mr. Conrad to share the responsibilities of this high tech marketing system, and give him a way to promote both "Begin a Home Based Business" and VereConference, of which he is a master distributor.

Predator Marketing is a home based business opportunity that allows anyone who is truly interested in starting a home based business to become successful by pitting forth the required effort. Like any home based business, it takes dedication, and hard work to succeed. Conrad said, "For a reasonable fee, the common everyday person can make a lot of money in a short period of time, which will allow them to quit their day job and stay at home." According to Conrad, that's just another reason he has "taken on a business partner."

Conrad also said, "This (begin a home based business) is for people who are serious about making good money on the Internet and helping others do the same. If you are not going to help others make money, please do not even look at this. If anyone signs up and doesn't get the help they need from you they can call me." He said he would give them his personal phone number.

"The reason I chose Jeffrey Sloe, is because he is a brother in Christ", said Conrad, "Jeff and I are Christian brothers, and we share the same Biblical truths about business. It's feels good to be in a business partnership with someone who shares the same values and morals, we are truly equally yoked." Mr. Sloe feels the same way.

"I'm honored to begin a home based business with Don", said Sloe, "he is a man of God, and his business practices parallel mine. That is exactly what I would expect from a fellow Christian. Don could have chosen anyone, but by the goodness of his heart, he offered to bring me in to begin a home based business, of which I accepted immediately. 'Begin a Home Based Business' will be a challenge, like any new start-up business, but we both feel that God has brought us together to help serve others, and that's the focus of Begin a Home Based Business."

God may have brought these to Christian brothers together, and God may have placed the "Begin a Home Based Business" opportunity in front of them, but one thing for sure, these two men will run the business the way God wants them to, with honesty, integrity, and with a humble heart.
