Dated: May 02, 2007

Cellphone Pages today announced the launch of New Zealand's only online Mobile Phone and Cellphone Directory Service. A FREE service for all New Zealand.

Cellphone Pages of New Zealand today announced the launch of New Zealand's only online mobile phone and CellPhone directory service at <http://www.cellphonepages.co.nz>

Managing Director Thomas Short said. "The telephone directory services offered by the incumbent Telco companies in New Zealand are not focused on the ubiquitous mobile phone.

Land lines and paid advertising dominate in both off and online telephone number directories. Our free service on <http://www.cellphonepages.co.nz> has breeched this gap."

Short went on to say; "We commenced a 'soft launch in October last year and the listing has grown 250% month on month since that time!" We really feel we have another possible TradeMe in <http://www.cellphonepages.co.nz> "
