Single Bottles of Seasilver (SeaAloe) Now Available from SeasilverFactoryDirect.com

It's already been reported that Seasilver has changed its name to SeaAloe.

SeaAloe is now the official and exclusive source for Seasilver's Liquid Nutritional Supplement.

Note that it's SeaAloe, and not Sea Aloe (as some sources have reported.)

Rest assured that it's the same great formula, the same great ingredients, and the same great taste.

For all practical purposes, SeaAloe is simply Seasilver with a new name and label.

SeaAloe, Inc., the manufacturer, only ships 3-Paks and 12-Paks of SeaAloe.

Many customers have wanted to try a single bottle of SeaAloe, and finally there is a source for single bottles.

You can now order a single bottle of SeaAloe at www.SeasilverFactoryDirect.com

SeasilverFactoryDirect also provides 3-Paks and 12-Paks of the popular SeaAloe product.

Here's a list of SeaAloe's ingredients:

Aloe Vera

The finest Aloe Vera in America, Aloe barbadensis Miller (leaf inner gel) is used. Hand-harvested and cultivated using organic practices to ensure the highest quality. It is delivered fresh to the manufacturing facility daily where it is hand-processed. The traditional benefits of the nutrients in Aloe Vera are known throughout the world.

A Blend of 7 Sea Vegetables

(1) Ascophyllum Nodosum (2) Kelp (3) Fucus Vesiculosus (4) Fucus (5) Chondrus Crispus (6) Nori (7) Ulva Lactuca

This proprietary blend of Sea Vegetables contain a wide variety of nutrients and are harvested from the purest and coldest waters from around the world.

Pau D'sArco Extract

SeaAloe uses only high quality inner bark (Tabebuia Avellanadae)

SeaAloe properly processes the Pau D'sArco bark to release the volatile oils & esters

It is used traditionally as a home remedy in South America

4 Concentrated Juices

Cranberry Juice Concentrate

White & Concord Grape Juice Concentrate

Black Cherry Juice Concentrate

Great tasting fruit juices known for their Phytonutrient properties
