Lil Fizz proved his unbeatable star power, creating a stir at the Grand Opening Block Party, an exclusive VIP event hosted by internet giant Myspace.com.

Los Angeles- On Saturday July 14, Hip-Hop and R&B superstar Lil Fizz of the multi-platinum group B2K created 'Pandemonium!' once again. The title of B2K's final album, Lil Fizz proved his unbeatable star power, creating a stir at the Grand Opening Block Party, an exclusive VIP event hosted by internet giant Myspace.com.

Needing to be rushed to a secret location upon a flash bulb crazed arrival, fans dashed toward Lil Fizz in anticipation for his 2 hour autograph session.

He visited with and signed autographs for hundreds of adoring fans who waited in line to catch a glimpse of the newfound solo artist. Upon exiting the event, Fizz was mobbed, once more, by a team of frenzied female fans waving their cell phones in hopes to get a picture with him.

At one of the first Myspace block parties in Van Nuys, California, this event was put together by Superior Nissan and FD Motoring. Other sponsors included Red Bull, Rock Star, Like That Entertainment, and Verizon Wireless.

Celebrities such as Vida Guerra, Aubrey O'Day of Danity Kane, M.I.M.S., Sean Kingston, and DJ Skribbles each made appearances alongside Lil Fizz to showcase the hottest music today.

With a digital release that became available through Itunes.com July 17th, Lil Fizz's "Pay Day" is an amazing R&B and Hip-Hop Album that is both edgy and sexy. With hot bouncy tracks, and catchy hooks, his first single "Beds" is already close to 1 million listens on Myspace. Featuring R&B crooner Ray J, "Beds" transforms into a complimentary collaboration between two of the music world's hottest young talents.
