Musikapa - Funny Game from EleFun Multimedia Games

Musikapa - Funny Game from EleFun Multimedia Games. Some time ago everyone believed that arkanoid was a bat and a ball only and the main goal of the game was to destroy blocks with the help of the bat and the ball. But it is not like that! Modern games are a new way of human self-realization. Do you think this process needs only ball, bat and blocks? What about the intentions to behold unknown, to puzzle out a mystery and find the Truth? Musikapa is not just an arkanoid. This is your chance to learn something new, to remember long-forgotten and enter into the spirit of perished and unidentified Celt civilization. Do not try to find the ball, the bat and the blocks in the Musikapa game. There are no such items there! But there is a great Druids' Secret. Will you read this riddle - it all depends on you. It depends on your personal characteristics, patience, reaction and quick wits. Do not take Musikapa for a Windows game. Arm yourself with your personal characteristics and abilities. Believe only in yourself, but not in your computer, and you will learn the Druids' secret, the secret of the most ancient European civilization.
