

10th Power Media Releases E-magazine Motorcycle ‘Megagroup’

Global Publisher Without Borders Targets World-Wide Motorcycle Population

Aug. 21, 2007 - PRLog -- (Tampa, FL, August 21, 2007) – Tenth Power Media Corporation today launched the largest collection of online motorcycle magazines in the world, marking the first time a publisher has made a commitment to cover the entire spectrum of the motorcycle sports with simultaneous launches of monthly online magazines.

Motorcycles have been ridden for more than 100 years and their popularity is growing. More people world-wide are considering them for use due to environmental concerns, overcrowding in city streets, or just the plain fun of riding a two-wheeler.

“I want to publish the most informative, content rich publications possible on the subject of motorcycles,” said Tenth Power Media Corporation’s Chairman, Ronald L. McDonald. “So far, Tenth Power Media has more than 60 publications up and operational under our Everythingmonthly.com heading, with additional titles being developed daily.”

The motorcycle publications include the flagship <http://www.MotorcyclesMonthly.com>, the trailblazing <http://www.WomenMotorcyclistsMonthly.com>, <http://www.BourgetMotorcycleMonthly.com>, <http://www.DucatiMonthly.com>, and others. Included in the pack is <http://www.MotorScooterMonthly.com>. Added to this group will be the first dating and social networking site situated in more than a dozen motorcycle magazine, as well as a full classified sales site linked to the entire group.

“I believe our readership will be served better than that of other publications,” McDonald continued, “because each magazine is linked to all others in the group. A reader of say, Women Motorcyclists Monthly, will have direct links to the different manufacturers’ fan magazines in this group. It’s like one-stop-shopping for all motorcyclists. No other publishers can even come close to this service and access.”
