

Affordable, Appropriate and Fashionable clothes for young tween and teenage girls.

By Forever Girl

Dated: Sep 03, 2007

Forever Girl is Launched! M3 creates new line of fashionable, stylish clothing for tweens and teen girls.

Forever Girl is the brainchild of sisters Megan, Morgan and Madison. Known as M3 music group, the sisters have launched their tween-teen clothing line, Forever Girl. The official debut of Forever Girl took place on August 11, 2007 in their Forever Enchanted Runway Show which was held in Atlanta GA. The Forever Girl Online Store went live on August 20th. The site is www.forevergirl.net. The sisters, who have many interests including singing, writing and producing, are now taking on the task of another love, fashion designing.

M3 featuring sisters Megan, Morgan and Madison are true leaders in their generation. Creative, Independent and Inspiring describes the young ladies as they begin to make their mark in the Entertainment and Fashion Industry. Morgan, Megan and Madison began designing at the young age of six and four. As they got older, so did their passion for designing clothes. They dreamed of having their own fashion line one day. Bonded through sisterhood and a love for fashion design the girls began to plan for their future line in 2005. Their goal: to introduce a line that is exciting, fashionable and appropriate for young teens and tweens. Now at twelve and ten years old the girls are very excited about the launch of their new line. They draw their inspiration from young girls worldwide and design clothes that are stylish, appropriate and on the cutting edge of today's current trends as well as maintaining the best of past styles. Each sister brings her on unique style to the design room and this is reflected in their 2007 collection, Forever Enchanted! The 2007 collection is available online at www.forevergirl.net. M3 is planning to partner with some of the best designers and retail stores in the industry. For more information on the Forever Girl Line visit their website at www.forevergirl.net. For more information on the sisters, M3, visit their website at www.m3music.net.

The Forever Girl Motto:

The Forever Girl is strong and independent. She is confident and aware of her strengths. She is comfortable in her own skin and enjoys having choices. She does not define herself by the world's standards but creates a world that she defines.

Category	Fashion, Entertainment, Retail
Tags	tween clothes, fashionable clothes, teen clothes
Email	Click to email author
Website	http://www.forevergirl.net