The demand for hip hop production has skyrocketed in recent years, due to the increase in popularity of the genre. Thousands of Hip Hop Producers and beatmakers have now set up shop on the internet as a result. The problem with offering production and beatmaking services online is that there is an abundance of competition in cyberspace.

MakeMoneyByMakingBeats.com has come up with a strategy to help up-and-coming producers make themselves stand out in a saturated production market. The website launched its brand new e-book titled "Make Money By Making Beats" yesterday. The book contains advanced online marketing techniques and tips, as well as secrets that can be used to get to the top of the charts on the #1 music site on the internet - Soundclick.

"Our goal is to even out the playing field for aspiring producers," says the company founder "with this e-book, anyone can learn techniques to effectively market their music online - we're starting a revolution!"

As an added bonus section, the book also includes contact information for record labels, a&r reps, television/film companies and video game companies, which can aid in attaining placements outside of the internet.
