Abu Dhabi, October 2007: Abu Dhabi’s Imperial College Diabetes Centre (ICLDC), in partnership with Emirates Foundation, has joined hands with the National Health Insurance Company – Daman, to stage a mass walkathon in the capital on November 23 2007, 3.00 pm start. Abu Dhabi Tourism Authority (ADTA) has also pledged its support.

The walkathon is set to cover a five kilometre route along Abu Dhabi’s Corniche and is designed to encourage participation from families, business teams and individuals from across the UAE.

Officials have confirmed that more than 10,000 people are targeted to join the event, dubbed WALK UAE 2007, as the nation comes together in the fight against diabetes.

Daman’s CEO, Dr Michael Bitzer, has endorsed the initiative and Daman is onboard as the event’s exclusive sponsor.

“Daman is totally behind WALK UAE 2007 and is committed to playing an active role in improving health standards by engaging in public education and enhancing knowledge about diabetes,” he said.

H.E Mubarak Al Muhairi, director general, Abu Dhabi Tourism Authority too endorsed the walkathon initiative : “Diabetes must be stamped on and we are ready to put our weight behind this effort.”

WALK UAE 2007 - ‘START WALKING. PREVENT DIABETES.’ is the third step of ICLDC’s multi-pronged public health awareness campaign, ‘DIABETES. KNOWLEDGE. ACTION.’, in association with Emirates Foundation.

WALK UAE 2007 is scheduled during World Diabetes Month – November, with the global media spotlight expected to shine on diabetes on November 14 – World Diabetes Day.
