

Vivek Ji On Air, After Accident , First Time

By Ananda hi Ananda

Dated: Oct 14, 2007

Vivek ji would speak to the public today after his accident first time.

Vivek ji would be speaking to the public by a radio program , first time after his traumatic accident which happened in Africa last month.

In the news release by Media team , Ananda hi Ananda said today , this program would be running around 5.00 pm and Vivek ji speak for one hour to the public , offering his special message and clear the all misleading statement published in Media .

Vivek ji this messages is important in lot of aspects , first it will be his first talk after his accident , second this would be his first talks after his work on Africa , in which he got accidented , he was in New York before this accident , in which as per the sources , he had hard time with IMF and rest of Monetry association .

In Country , recently the issue of Sethusamudram , in which he had spoken already before leaving India , and the 123 plan , will be on hold .

Vivek ji was first person to hold the issue of Ram setu , but due to his accident and not being bale to talk in public , he would must contain in his speech some sort of his outlook.
