TheMoveChannel.com, the leading international property marketing network, is delighted to announce its new association with Virgin Media in the promotion of worldwide property...

TheMoveChannel will be assisting Virgin Media with its worldwide property marketing strategy by providing an expansive property news and information service, including:

1. The provision of relevant international property news stories on a daily basis.
2. The addition of TMC's property listing service to the Virgin Media website.

Dan Johnson, Managing Director of On The Move, enthused "I am delighted with this new implementation of our service on the Virgin Media Website. Partnerships play an important part in our online distribution strategy and there are few bigger brands out there than Virgin".

TheMoveChannel.com is dedicated to finding new and exciting methods of buying and selling property, and in the ever expanding and competitive property investment industry, it is increasingly important to offer buyers and sellers fresh, dynamic solutions.

Dan Johnson concluded: "We hope that this relationship can flourish and deliver a great experience for their users and tangible benefits for our partners."
