Real estate and mortgage broker Ed Irwin announced today that Integra Real Estate & Mortgage has partnered with Jim Rockwell of Rockwell Realty, a local real estate firm with 45 agents.

Real estate and mortgage broker Ed Irwin announced today that Integra Real Estate & Mortgage has partnered with Jim Rockwell of Rockwell Realty, a local real estate firm with 45 agents. Irwin and Rockwell joined forces to better serve their clients and to further develop the resources and offerings of both firms.

With 24 years of experience, Irwin will take over the day-to-day management of Rockwell's operations, giving his partner more time to recruit new agents. Unique from its competitors, the Rockwell program is designed for real estate agents who want to reduce their overhead and business costs while maintaining a professional image and providing clients with complete real estate service.

"The real estate and mortgage industries are changing rapidly and we have to stay ahead of them," Irwin said. "By combining experience and resources with Rockwell, we are in a better position to serve both our clients and our agents."

Irwin's announcement today came on the heels of Integra's recent move from Mercer Island to Bellevue. "We felt it was important to be closer to most of our clients," Irwin said.

With offices in Seattle, Kirkland and Bellevue, Rockwell has been a licensed real estate agent for more than 22 years and a broker since 1990. Irwin has been an attorney since 1967, a real estate broker since 1978 and a mortgage broker since 1983. Integra Real Estate & Mortgage, in partnership with Rockwell Realty, offers clients one-stop shopping for all of their real estate and mortgage needs.
