"I liked the selection of both adult and children's birthday cards" said Elizar Suzpin of San Fernando, California. The site makes it easy to preview all the cards by providing very large 'thumbnail' images that show both the card cover and the inside of the birthday card. I could see the birthday cards in great detail before I downloaded them. I picked two for upcoming birthdays of friends and family."

KeepandShare.com is the free website that makes group sharing easy. Keep And Share's free personal and group sharing accounts can be accessed securely from any Internet connected computer. Users can easily create and share calendars and files on line with friends and family. The printable birthday card center is part of a comprehensive new high-resolution printable card center from KeepandShare's that includes free printable Christmas cards and free printable greeting cards.
