Greenwood, Nova Scotia, Canada-

Fantasy author A. F. Stewart has released her third book, entitled The Incomplete List of Action Movie Clichés. It is the first non-fiction book the author has written, and is a product of her long love of action films. This small booklet has again been published in conjunction with Lulu.com, (www.lulu.com), the world's fastest-growing provider of print-on-demand books. The volume is now available at <http://www.lulu.com/content/1615936>

As an avid filmgoer, and action movie fan, A. F. Stewart compiled years of observations and experience, with just a touch of satiric wit, to create The Incomplete List of Action Movie Clichés. This book is a movie guide, detailing the most prevalent, or annoying plot devices that permeate action movies. It is a fun, irreverent look at the implausible and impossible scenarios that are movie plots. A definitive must for any action movie buff.

The Incomplete List of Action Movie Clichés is just one of the assorted publications available for purchase at www.lulu.com, in a marketplace filled with other distinctive and fantastic surprises.

Self-publishing and print-on-demand is the latest thing for up and coming new authors, and is an indication of the future of independent publishing.
