

To save the world she must die! Or does she?

By Gloria Oliver

Dated: Dec 30, 2007

Gloria Oliver has released a new young adult fantasy novel called Willing Sacrifice from Zumaya Publications

Contact: Gloria Oliver

Cell: 972-998-3630

Email: gioliver@swbell.net

Young woman is the key to saving the world

For as long as she can remember, La'tiera has known her purpose, her destiny. As the Bearer of the Eye, she will wait until the appointed time then sacrifice herself to the demons so the lands will be safe.

Yet as the time approaches, she is snatched from her home by strangers and is told it is for her protection. These strangers tell her she is not to be a sacrifice, but must fight to live in order for the world to be saved.

La'tiera will not be swayed, however, her duty clear. Despite their clever lies, she will follow through on her destiny and do what is required. Her every effort will be put to freeing herself from her kidnappers and meeting her fate as planned..

1. Young Adult Fantasy
2. What one thinks they know is not always the truth
3. Stubbornness can be a strength and a weakness
4. A good read for the whole family

Gloria Oliver is the author of several novels, including "In the Service of Samurai" and "Vassal of EL". More info on her and her novels can be found at www.gloriaoliver.com

A two time EPPIE finalist.

Please email to arrange for an interview or for any questions

See <http://www.gloriaoliver.com> for Sample Chapters and more information

###

Speculative Fiction author with two other fantasy novels currently in print. More information and sample chapters available at www.gloriaoliver.com

Category Entertainment, Publishing, Media

Tags young adult fantasy, ya fantasy, young adult, Books, fantasy, gloria oliver, stubbornness, demons, end of world

Email Click to email author

Website <http://www.gloriaoliver.com>

Phone 972-998-3630

Address 4525 Ridgepointe Dr

City/Town The Colony

State/Province Texas

Zip 75056
Country United States