Multimedia morphing leader release the official version of its AV Webcam Morpher 2.0.

AVnex Ltd., a leader in the media morphing industry, today announced the release of the official version of its Webcam Morpher 2.0, following much success of an introductory Pre-order Program over the last few months. The webcam utility software, anxiously awaited by many lovers of its predecessor, Webcam Morpher 1.0, which will see its first commercial delivery on www.audio4fun.com this January 15th.

Designed along the lines of its previous version, this innovation guarantees the user absolute anonymity and great fun in the cyberspace, thanks to a list of 10 nickvoices, 25 nickfaces, a wide variety of actions and motions, and a rich assortment of audio and video effects.

This innovative release contains many exciting additions and improvements, including these features:

Background changeability: the background behind the nickface can be changed to add authenticity.

Nickface maker module: now users can create their own, unique nickfaces complete with gestures, actions and motions.

Two-way webcam recorder: both incoming and out-coming webcam streams can now be recorded and safely stored.

Clip sharing: video clip sharing is enabled between the users and their chat mates during a webcam session.

Tracy Norman, Brand Manager of the Webcam Morpher series said, "We make it more than a promise. It is our commitment to bring safety and fun to any member of the cyber community. We have paid careful attention to all aspects of this software program, as we do with all of our software. Bugs are carefully detailed and fixed. Glitches are smoothed out. Users' feedback and comments are considered and factored into the development plan. All that could be done has been done for the best result possible."

AV Webcam Morpher 2.0 has already completed a successful pre-launch phase, which enjoyed great customer support for its Pre-order Program. The company staff is ready for the big release on www.audio4fun.com this mid Jan.

AV Webcam Morpher 2.0 can also serve a wide range of other purposes, such as a video diary and house watching surveillance. For more information about the product, visit www.audio4fun.com .
