Dated: Feb 18, 2008

The new retail centre is hoped to attract visitors from all over the region, aswell as being a boost to the tourism industry

18th.Feb.2008

The centre will have a multiplex cinema, a skating ring, gymnasium, a night cub, a large space solely for “cultural” displays and of course lots of retail shops.

There will also be a large children’s area.

All the necessary licenses have now been obtained, so it is planned that the work will start within the month. The entire build is projected to cost in the region of seventy six million euro’s. and take about three years to be completely finished.

The designated site is 46,500m2 and once fully operational it is estimated that 4.5million people will visit the centre per annum. The centre will be a huge boost to employment for the area with about 1000 people being employed directly and a further 500 people indirectly through companies servicing the retail site.

The centre will also have café’s, restaurants and bars, so as to make it a excellent all day experience.It is also hoped that it will have a knock on effect for the surrounding tourist attractions in La Manga and other Mar Menor area’s close by.
