

Up-and-coming fantasy writer A. F. Stewart is now on Squidoo.

By A. F. Stewart

Dated: Feb 23, 2008

A. F. Stewart is sharing her experiences as both a fantasy writer and an independently published author with the world. By authoring two separate lenses on Squidoo, she is attempting to impart hard-won knowledge to other writers looking for advice.

How to write a Fantasy Novel, (<http://www.squidoo.com/insiderealms>), details step-by-step instructions on the writing process in general, while focusing on the special quirks of authoring a fantasy book. Also featured on the page are must-read fantasy novels from Amazon and useful links to writing websites.

How to become an Independently Published Author, (<http://www.squidoo.com/afstewart>), describes the process of publishing your books independently of traditional publishers. There are useful tips on marketing, advertising, and do-it-yourself publicity. And all the ideas are free or done with very little expense. Also include on the page are places for other independently published authors to add their books or websites.

All writers and readers are invited to check out these sites.
