

New DNA Clinica Offers Advanced Training for Estheticians and Skin Care Health Professionals

By DNA Health Insititute

Dated: Mar 03, 2008

Dr. Noel Aguilar, stem cell research expert and founder of the DNA Health Institute line of organic skin care products, opens an advanced aesthetical training facility for estheticians and skin care professionals.

Ventura, CA – Since the launch of his innovative and highly sought after natural skin care products 12 years ago, Dr. Noel Aguilar has been traveling the world to train experts on his propriety advanced organic skin care technologies.

Now, his clientele of estheticians, dermatologists, burn doctors, and medical professionals, can receive skin care training at his state of the art DNA Clinica located in Ventura, California.

“DNA Clinica gives estheticians and skin care medial professionals the opportunity to work with the products that are revolutionizing the skin care industry. These are products that have been engineered with 100 percent natural, organic, and non-toxic ingredients including stem cells, fresh organic elastin, DNA, collagens, proteins, minerals, and nutrient-rich ocean vegetation,” says Dr. Aguilar, president of DNA Health Institute (<http://www.dnaskin.com>).

DNA Clinica will offer a complimentary 2-course training event on February 26th featuring an open lab with DNA expert Heather Friesen. In this portion of the course, students will gain hands on experience with more than 800 customizable designer DNA CryoStem skin therapy treatments.

The course also features instruction from Patricia Coash who will speak on the topic of generating revenue with the DNA product line. During this interactive forum, will learn effective ways to market, advertise, and promote their businesses using the DNA Skin line of natural skin care products.

This complimentary course will be held on multiple dates throughout 2008. A complete event calendar offering a full schedule of training events is available at: <http://www.dnaskin.com/dna-skin-downloads.html>

.

Other courses scheduled throughout 2008 include:

- 2-day Certified CDP Training Course
- Skin and Nutrition Modules I and II,
- All About Peels Course

Registration for courses is limited and available to qualified estheticians, dermatologists, and other medical skin care professionals.

About DNA Health Institute: Dr. Noel Aguilar is the founder DNA Health Institute and the creator of the DNA CryoStem Skin Therapy System. DNA Health Institute is passionate about using only pure, fresh ingredients that have a beneficial biological effect on the human system in all of its natural skin care products.

Category Consumer, Environment, Science
Tags organic skin care, natural skin care, dr noel aguilar
Email Click to email author

Website <http://www.dnaskin.com>
Phone 800-676-4616
Address 4562 Westinghouse Street, Suite B
City/Town Ventura
State/Province California
Zip 93003
Country United States