(Gibraltar) Eco Trading Co., the premiere organic cosmetics retailer in Gibraltar proudly launches their new product, Argan Angel Skin Food. This product contains nothing but 100% Argan oil, a substance that is proven to have numerous benefits for the skin.

What is Argan Oil?

Argan oil is found in Southwestern Morocco, the only place where you can find Argan trees. These are fruit-bearing trees that produce olive-like fruits that have effective healing abilities. The intricate process of extracting the oil from these fruits has been practiced over the years by the women of Berber. These women in Morocco have to extract the seed from inside these fruits and ground them with a stone and mortar to make a paste. It takes one person more than two days just to extract 1 litre of oil that comes from 5kg of nuts. This just proves how the Berber women of those times saw the value in Argan oil. Their very tedious task wouldn't have been done over the years if this precious oil did not bear results. Here are some beneficial effects that Argan oil provides.

Eco Trade Co.'s new product, Argan Angel Skin Food, is made with 100% Argan oil contains several nutrients and natural ingredients that can serve as preventive measures for various skin diseases as well as effective maintenance for a natural, fully effective skin regimen. Here are some of the benefits of its components.

Argan Angel Skin Food is rich in Polyphenols and Vitamin E which are very powerful antioxidants. Antioxidants are essential substances that can give various benefits on the skin and body. First, it can eliminate and prevent the emergence of acne. It can do this because it can limit the effects of free radicals that are the culprit for this age-old problem. Getting rid of free radicals can also help in curing skin diseases. Eczema, a form of Dermatitis is a sickness that is very unsightly because of the inflammation of the upper layers of the skin. It also promotes dryness of the skin, recurring rashes and redness including flaking and blistering which can be very painful and hard to bear. This can be cured by getting rid of free radicals found inside the body. Besides its healing effects, these substances are also known to promote a youthful – looking skin with a very radiant glow.

Omega 6 (Oleic acid), Omega 9 (Linoleic acid), Prostaglandins 1 and Prostaglandins 3 are essential fatty acids found in Argan Angel Skin Food as well. Having these components makes this product a very effective moisturizer. These substances are also known to effectively preserve skin elasticity. Having the right amount of moisture on the skin does not only promote a smooth and childlike complexion. Its moisturizing properties also help cure one of the most uncomfortable skin diseases that is affecting a wide number of people today. Argan Angel Skin Food, with its fatty acids can help regulate Psoriasis as well. The most common treatments for this disease are topical creams, injected drugs and oral medications. Yet, because of the severity of this sickness, most of these treatments are products of researches that use synthetic ingredients that often cause side effects not only to people under treatment but to the environment as well. They are also often only relief providers for Psoriasis sufferers, thus, making the disease a part of the lifecycle of a victim. Argan Angel Skin Food's power to treat psoriasis can provide a more dependable relief for Psoriasis patients. These fatty acid components of this product restores the hydro – lipidic film of the skin that prevents the loss of moisture, the main characteristic that psoriasis patients' skin should always have. Argan Angel Skin Food also contains Squalene which is also an effective substance that can prevent skin cancer.

Argan Angel Skin Food ought to be a part of everyone's skin regimen. It has all the characteristics that a skin product should have. It also reduces the amount of time and effort that one has to undergo just to ensure a youthful, healthy glowing skin. Best of all, Argan Angel Skin Food is made with all natural ingredients, thus making it the best nourishment no other product can provide.
