Italy is famous in the world for its tradition in the field of Design, consequently the best country to study in for people who want to become an Interior/Industrial Designer and Milan is the cutting edge capital of Design.

Naba (Nuova Accademia di Belle Arti ), one of the most important Italian design academies in Italy, offers a professional and qualified Bachelor of Arts Programs in Interior and Industrial Design in Milan.

Milan is the city that gave birth to the modern design, where every year designers and producers of the industry gather to show and see what's new at SALONE DEL MOBILE (furniture fair). In addition, in Milan you will have the chance to go to the Triennale design museum to breathe the culture of design as well as to experience innovations and you will visit many design showrooms, studios, and firms.

As said before, in Milan it is located the Italian Design Academy NABA, established educational institution which issues a three years programme degree in design that is recognized all over the world. It trains and has prepared professionals for more than 20 years in the fields of product, interior, and exhibition design. Thanks to Naba you will learn to solve complex design problems related to products and manufacturing processes, and to develop efficient strategies, to foresee future needs.

If you want to study and design in an international environment under the supervision of well-known experts and your dream is to be in touch with the industry every day or be part of it so to complete one or more internship for an important label, then

NABA and Milan are the answers to your future professional career, a good opportunity for students who want to discover the art of industrial and interior designers.
