A location is finally picked for the weeklong fashion event

Baltimore, MD - After searching for months for a place to host the first ever Baltimore's Fashion Week, Sharan Nixon, President/CEO of Baltimore's Fashion Week, has decided on a location for the week-long scheduled event.

"Baltimore's Fashion Week will be held at the War Memorial Building on 101 North Gay Street in Baltimore," says Nixon, with excitement in her voice. "Now the designers and models will showcase the fashions in style, I can hardly wait," says Nixon.

Nixon stated "With this location we are expecting a guest attendance of 100 plus attendees for the workshops and 800 plus Baltimore City residents for each of the three scheduled runway events."

All the events from August 11th – 15th, 2008, will take place inside the historical War Memorial Building located in Downtown Baltimore. Events planned for Baltimore's Fashion Week include the following: August 11th- Celebration Reception; August 12th-Workshops with Roy Cox Photography displaying the techniques in capturing that perfect photograph, and Tim Coburn Photography, will facilitate a hair, make-up, and modeling workshop; August 13th- Runway Event entitled, Public Display of Af-FASHION; August 14th- Runway Event entitled, Dare to Be Different | Thinking Outside The Box; and last but not least, August 15th- Gala & Runway Finale entitled, The Love for Haute Couture Runway Event.

"I'm so happy we finally have a location for Baltimore's Fashion Week! I can't wait to see the look on the attendees faces when they enter the War Memorial Building, as we say at Butterfly Productions, 'Transformation is key'," says Nixon.
