Stephen Lewis Named to the Transformational Leadership Council

Stephen Lewis, author of the book Sanctuary: The Path to Consciousness and Las Vegas resident was selected to be a member the Transformational Leadership Council founded by Chicken Soup for the Soul author Jack Canfield. TLC is a mastermind group of some of the most influential leaders in personal and spiritual development. Many of the members of the Transformational Leadership Council were filmed by Rhonda Byrne for the movie The Secret at the 2005 event in Aspen, Colorado. Members are focused on transformational leadership and deliver their work through workshops, training, seminars, books, film, speaking engagements, TV & radio shows, and special events.

Lewis was nominated by Secret teacher Rev. Dr. Michael Beckwith for his work in the field of energetic balancing. Lewis has degrees in Homeopathy and Acupuncture and his extensive studies helped him create The AIM Program of Energetic Balancing. More than 45,000 people worldwide have enrolled in The AIM Program. One of Lewis' outreach activities has been to offer The AIM Program free to children and adults with the frequency of Autism or Down Syndrome. In a conversation with Stephen, Dr. Wayne Dyer piqued his interest in Autism, which launched The AIM Scholarship Programs. EMC² was founded in 1998 by Stephen Lewis, Roberta Hladek and Evan Slawson.
