

Renowned Aesthetic Consultant, Stephanie Popper joins the NJ Center for Dental & Facial Enhancement

Dr. Bruce Freund Announces the Addition of Renowned Aesthetic Consultant, Stephanie Popper to NJ Center for Dental & Facial Enhancement

March 19, 2008 - PRLog -- Englewood Cliffs, NJ -Dr. Bruce Freund announces the addition of renowned Aesthetic Consultant, Stephanie Popper to The NJ Center for Dental & Facial Enhancement. Dr. Freund's vision is making sure patients who are trying to achieve an overall optimal cosmetic result can do so by visiting his office. As Dr. Freund states, "Many of my patients look to me help to help them not only with cosmetic dentistry but also with their facial injectables. They love the service that we provide essentially because we are a one-stop shop for facial enhancements. Due to the overwhelming response we received, we added Stephanie Popper to the team to guide patients in making the decisions that are best for them." Decisions are made on an individual basis when it comes to the menu of services which include Botox, Restylane, Perlane, Radiesse, Juvederm, Microdermabrasion, Dental Veneers, Invisalign and Bleaching.

As Stephanie Popper explains, "There are arrays of different products and not everything is good for everyone. Every person has a different skin type and texture and for that reason what may work wonders on one person may not work so well on another." Popper has over ten years experience in the image enhancement industry where her clients include celebrities, socialites and others that just want to look better. Stephanie Popper is one of the most sought after in the country as she is an expert in guiding a client through the facial enhancement procedures and then suggesting what is actually best for that person. The NJ Center for Dental & Facial Enhancement is located at 510 Sylvan Avenue in Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey. For a complimentary facial consult, please call (201) 568-0606.
