Dated: Apr 23, 2008

Kids live hectic lives now a days: school, sports, coaching classes etc but hardly find time to enjoy and do activities where kids could be themselves. A time where kids can get a little muddy, ride a horse, swim in a lake, or sit around a campfire.

Mumbai: Keeping all these and various issues in mind, Arzoo.com the leading travel portal in India has launched summer camps specially designed for mother and children together. The programs designed for children in age groups of 4-8 Years, 7-12 Years, 12 -17 Years etc and consists of activities like Rappelling, Valley Crossing, Swimming, Tent Pitching, Jungle Cooking, Jungle Trekking & Campfire and many other adventurous games. Through these activities the leadership and team building skills come to the core beautifully. One can learn the skills required to undertake in an expedition in the wilderness to bring out one's leadership qualities.

According to Mr. Sameer Patil, Marketing Head – India of Arzoo.com, "It is at camp that children are able to forget about their daily busy schedule, school, video games and enjoy the moment of being near God's creation. It is at the camp where children grow and mature in their perspectives and awareness of all that creation teaches." Camp is a teaching ground for social skills, outdoor skills, spiritual development, and team participation. It provides 5 to 6 days of intense interaction with a trainer or camp in-charge. It is during this week that many young people can begin a new beginning, or make decisions that will affect their adult life", Mr. Patil further adds.

Leadership in the Jungle, Veerappan, The River Pirates, Jungle Survival Skills, Kiddin This Summer are few of the Summer camps organized by Arzoo.com for this summer vacation.
