Integrity Way Group (nonprofit organization) has been formed to help people who are suffering from drug or alcohol addiction, homelessness, or who are living in financial need. We are reaching out with love and compassion.

Integrity Way Group which can be found at <http://www.integrityway.org/> is a non-profit organization that helps the homeless, the addicted, and the alcoholic. Currently, they are in the beginning stages of operation but have seen tremendous success with Integrity Way Transitional Housing which can be found at <http://www.integritywayflorida.com/>. Integrity Way Group hopes to duplicate what Integrity Way Transitional Housing has already done over the past three years which is to help thousands of people who suffer from the disease of addiction or alcoholism. Integrity Way is a sober living environment which consists of fourteen homes with seventy four beds and is located in Delray Beach, Florida.

Integrity Way Group is in the process of raising money in order to fund the plans they have in place. "If we can raise enough money to support those we serve for three months, with the structured process we have in place, they will then be able to support themselves. The issue of homelessness, addiction, and alcoholism must be tackled. We need the government and we need the public say's Integrity Way's Chief of Development."
