Integrity Way Group (non profit organization) is picking up and dropping off valuable clothes that are being used by those who need it most.

Integrity Way Group <http://www.integrityway.org> is grateful for the charitable residents at Integrity Way Transitional Housing. These residents who are recovering from drug addiction and alcoholism have risen to the call of filling bags full of clothes to donate and be used by Integrity Way Group. <http://integritywayflorida.com> who serves the homeless. Integrity Way's Chief of Development said, "it is a beautiful moment when you see someone who has had nothing and has been homeless themselves, take off their belt and give it to a gentleman that is now homeless and unable to hold his pants up. You can not begin to describe the special feeling but you sure can crave more of it. If we can help others feel the same way, we will have more helped in no time."

Integrity Way Group plans to connect with other organizations that are like minded. They believe too many non profits fail because they are unable to connect with people or groups that can help them stand. If you are interested in helping, Integrity Way Group encourages people to visit <http://integrityway.org> and look at the How Can I Help page.
