

Regency Office Products Names Multi-Market Service Manager

Rachael Rose has been promoted to manager of field services and will spearhead teams in four markets, serving current clients while integrating new customers to peripheral services offered by Regency.

May 12, 2008 - PRLog -- CHICAGO April 25, 2008— Regency Office Products, one of the nation’s fastest growing, independently-owned office products companies, announces Rachael Rose has been promoted to manager of field services. In her new role, Rose will spearhead teams in four markets serving current clients while integrating new customers to peripheral services offered by Regency.

Rose joined Regency Office Products in 2005, and most recently served as field service manager for the Chicago office. In addition, Rose will head the national furniture sales program for the company.

“Rachael has been a fundamental part in the growth of our Chicago office over the past year,” says Eric Beguelin, president and founder of Regency Office Products. “With the tremendous initiative she has shown as a member of the sales team, I am confident she will serve as a great leader and driving force in her new role.”

Rose graduated from Indiana University with a B.S. in telecommunications. She is a native of Potomac, Md. and currently resides in Chicago.
