

Halfway Houses in Delray Beach, Florida- INTEGRITY WAY

By Integrity Way

Dated: May 15, 2008

The number of Halfway Houses in Delray Beach, Florida is growing by leaps and bounds which is very much needed because the number of those addicted to drugs and alcohol is also.

According to SAMHSA (U.S. Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration)

One of every eight Americans has a significant problem with alcohol or drugs, with 40 percent of the group having a "dual diagnosis," or concurrent mental/nervous disorder;

Approximately 27 million Americans either use illicit drugs regularly or are "heavy drinkers." Of these almost 16 million are estimated to need immediate treatment;

By age eighteen, almost 12 percent of all young people are illicit drug users;

An untreated alcoholic's medical costs are approximately 300 percent higher than non-alcoholic's medical costs;

Approximately 70 percent of illegal drug users are employed and contribute significantly to workplace absenteeism, accidents and injuries, decreased productivity, increased insurance expenses, employee turnover costs and on-the-job violence;

The estimated annual direct cost to our society resulting from substance abuse is more than 250 billion dollars;

It is generally accepted that chemical dependency, along with associated mental health disorders, has become one of the most severe health and social problems facing the United States.*
