The always-engaging Cheryl will share travel slides and regale in the adventures and misadventures of the "ultimate culinary adventure." Cheryl and her co-author husband Bill, traveled over 50,000 miles to 10 countries and sampled over 800 dishes.

Tickets to the event are $75 per person which include a tropical martini bar by Exclusiv Vodka, wines from around the world by Ocean Wine and Spirits, appetizers, main course and dessert from the Jamisons' recipes, prepared by Cook it! partner, award-winning Branches, and an autographed copy of, "Around the World in 80 Dinners".

Don't miss this rare opportunity to share in Cheryl's globe-trotting experience and to pick up travel tips for your own culinary tour. This event will be Cheryl's only appearance in New Jersey. There will also be a Cook It! charity raffle to benefit the Foodbank of Monmouth and Ocean Counties sponsored by Aquamedica.

Cook It! brings accomplished chefs, expert food writers, and their newly released cookbooks to the Jersey Shore by partnering with premiere food, beverage and entertainment businesses. The result is a unique, dynamic event that illustrates the art of cooking from page to plate.

"Based on our sold-out series last year, it is clear that people are hungry for this exciting concept," said founder and co-owner Jacquie Dalton. "Cook It! is a dynamic conduit for bringing cookbooks to life."
