San Francisco, CA - The latest release from 3X Records titled "PUNJABI COWBOYZ" hits iTunes today with blazing electrical super cool funky melodies and packs hard hitting, stylish, thought provoking lyrics. The album is a unique combination of Eastern and Western styles and songs which range from the smooth riding beats of the instant classic, "Mere Nal Ahja (come with me)", to the bone crunching attitude of "Hit the Flo".

Triple, RIZ and PigFeet have combined with music produced by some the hottest DJs, to make critical artistic expressions that speak to the heart of social and political issues as well as how to party like real rock stars.

The breakout hit "SUMMER BREEZE" tells the mischievous playful tale of a hot summer day and what goes on into the evening. The raucously audacious "DESI HIPHOP" tells the tale of the legacy that we leave to our children and the implications of our selfish actions.

Triple and PigFeet have teamed up before on UNCLE BHAGATS PARTY, "The return of Uncle Bhagat" as well as the late 90's hardcore rock-rap combo LP "DISCO SOLDIERS" and then later "TOXIC POSSUM".

RIZ is a Bay Area lyricist with roots back to Newark, California's hottest producers and rappers.

Triple is also known for his smash hit song "LET ME BE FREE" featured in the 2005 Bollywood masterpiece film and soundtrack titled "BANANA BROTHERS".

PigFeet has been associated with a number of successful bay area bands and projects dating back to 1990 including "ALL STAR DELICIOUS" and was featured on tour in 2007 with "LIVE AUDIO EXPLOSION". His electric stage presence and high-energy performance was the highlight at the popular nightclub "the next door" in Honolulu, Hawaii.
