The one question that every women asks herself when going on holiday is 'what am I going to wear?'

The one question that every women asks herself when going on holiday is 'what am I going to wear?' With so much to choose from, and only a single suitcase to fit it in, we at Evans have the answer with our essential guide to the items you shouldn't be without this holiday season.

1. A great dress – skimming fabrics and bright summer colours are hot this season and a great dress is something that every woman needs in her holiday wardrobe. Dress it up with heeled sandals and a cute bag, or wear to the beach over your swimsuit with a pair of flat shoes.
2. Comfortable crops – denim and linen are our favourite fabrics this season. They are easy to care for and comfortable to wear and will keep you cool all day long. Team with a t-shirt or vest for casual comfort or try a floaty top and heeled sandals for a summer's evening out.
3. Sexy sandals – give your legs a lovely line with a gorgeous pair of summer sandals. Add some sparkle to any outfit with silver sandals or a pair with bead or gem embellishment. A brightly coloured heel is a great way to add some personal style to your holiday wardrobe.
4. A swimsuit...or two – feeling great on the beach is every bit as important to feeling great on an evening out. Find a swimsuit that fits your figure and shows off your curves in all the right places. Our favourites for the season are tankinis that you can mix and match, or a plain black halter swimsuit, perfect for a fuller bust.
