Anyone running a hotel, guesthouse or self-catering accommodation such as a holiday let, needs to be aware of the legislation that applies to such businesses.

Enhanced Wealth Limited is offering a discount to the online subscription which reduces the cost from the normal price of £26 to £14.99 in the first year. All subscribers will receive:

- access 24/7 to up-to-date information
- regular updates whenever legislation changes
- e-mail alerts
- regular news and features
- a chance to exchange views and tips with other accommodation providers via a discussion forum
- guidance on 38 legislation topics
- property marketing and dealing with common problems
- downloadable forms and templates for common business processes - e.g. bookings

Many more people are now investing in UK holiday let property, says Sean Horton from Holiday Let Mortgages.

“The Accommodation Know-How website provides a wealth of information to assist people with the legislation related to tourist accommodation”, he says. “We know from our customer feedback just how much the online information is appreciated and this is a perfect extra service for our clients to benefit from.”

“A holiday let property needs specialist advice that is not easily accessible. We are proud to be providing high quality advice to these investors and maintaining our position as the UK’s premier holiday let mortgage broker”.

Sean summarises: “This additional service is great news for us and our clients. We see the second property market continuing to grow as more people decide to holiday at home and having the right advice is vital.”
