Easco Wireless, an authorized dealer of Verizon wireless services, phones, and accessories has opened its doors in the suburban Midlothian area of Richmond, Virginia. Easco, which currently has numerous locations in the Washington, DC area, is expanding into the Richmond area and plans on opening up many new locations. The store, located on Midlothian Turnpike, is a much needed Verizon location addition to the Richmond area.

“I am thrilled to be expanding our business into the Richmond area,” says Jerry Edmonds, CEO of Easco Enterprises. “This is such a great market for Easco because Richmonders love the personalized, customer service they get on Verizon wireless plans through the Easco Midlothian location. The response we’ve gotten from the community is astounding and we look forward to serving the Richmond community for years to come.” Easco specializes in superior customer service, housing a wide range of phones and accessories, the ability to educate customers about the new FiOS fiber optic television and internet system, and on having a very knowledgeable staff. Easco Wireless especially prides itself on its tremendous accessory selection. In addition, Easco also has a business-to-business support staff for assisting companies in managing their telecommunications needs.

The Midlothian Easco Wireless store is located on Midlothian Turnpike at Midlothian Village Station less than two miles from Route 288 and Chesterfield Town Center. To visit Easco Wireless and shop online, please go to www.easco.ws.
