

Jovonnie attends Epic Records & Giant Magazine party

By Jadar Records

Dated: Jul 10, 2008

June 22, 2008. Jadar Records recording artist, Jovonnie attends Epic Records/Giant Magazine private party held in Hollywood, CA. The event showcased Epic Records new talent, among artist attendees was the well-received newcomer, Noel Gourdin.

June 22, 2008. Jadar Records recording artist, Jovonnie attends Epic Records/Giant Magazine private party held in Hollywood, CA. The event showcased Epic Records new talent, among artist attendees was the well-received newcomer, Noel Gourdin.

Jovonnie and Noel Gourdin originally met at the Urban Network Summit '08 held in Newport Beach, CA earlier this spring and reunited at the Epic Records/Giant Magazine event.

Jovonnie, known for her new hit single, "Was She Worth It" is heating up the Southern and Midwest Market radio charts. "Was She Worth It," dubbed the Women's National Anthem has quickly moved to the top of radio charts and has proved to have staying power.

Keep your eyes on both budding artists, quickly making a name for themselves in the recording industry. Noel Gourdin's "The River" offers soulful sounds of yesterday. Noel Gourdin and Jovonnie are two artists with substantial talent with sounds that immediately takes you back to the foundation of soulful R&B.

To find out additional information about Jovonnie's music, visit <http://www.jovonnie.com> and http://www.blackplanet.com/music/view/artist.html?owner_user_id=53623498

To find out additional information about Noel Gourdin's music, visit <http://www.noelgourdin.com> and <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Noel-Gourdin/11160489151>

Category	Music, Art
Tags	jovonnie, jovonnie jadar records, jovonnie was she worth it, noel gourdin, epic records, jadar records
Email	Click to email author
City/Town	Pasadena
State/Province	California
Zip	91109
Country	United States