

New Insurance Web Site For Insurance In Afghanistan

By David G Tompkins

Dated: Jul 15, 2008

TFG Global Insurance Solutions Ltd. has recently launched a new web site dedicated to offering insurance to companies and individuals working and living in Afghanistan. TFG Global is a leader in providing special risk insurance to high risk regions.

TFG Global Insurance Solutions Ltd. has recently launched a new web site called Afghanistan-insurance.com. This new site specializes in providing information and quote requests for companies and individuals working in Afghanistan. TFG Global is already a leading supplier of insurance for high risk regions such as Iraq, Africa and Afghanistan. We have provided international insurance solutions to many companies, Non-Government Organizations (NGOs), security companies, reporters and individuals going to Afghanistan to aid in the rebuilding of this war torn country.

TFG Global searches the market for clients in need of insurance to cover single or extended stays in Afghanistan. The new web site located at:

<http://www.afghanistan-insurance.com>

will offer a specialized portal for businesses, NGOs, governments and news organizations with employees operating in Afghanistan, which continues to be a very hostile and dangerous area of the world. The new web site at www.afghanistan-insurance.com provides specialized insurance for clients in need of high quality risk evaluation and protection.

TFG Global has access to insurance companies around the world and is a Lloyds agent. We can source insurance for all types of security work, including asset and personal protection. Through Afghanistan-Insurance.com, customers can obtain quotes for:

- Personal Accident Coverage - Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D)
- Major Medical for sickness and injury
- Evacuation and Repatriation
- Kidnap and Ransom
- Defense Base Act
- Property & Casulty
- Disability & Life cover
- Travel Insurance

All the plans we quote for Afghanistan include coverage for passive war, riot and terrorism risk. David Tompkins, President of TFG Global, noted recently that "passive war risk coverage is a must for any person who travels to Afghanistan because of the continued risk from the Taliban. We have helped several companies and organizations in their efforts to rebuild Afghanistan after many years of war. Passive war risk coverage means you are covered if injured or killed in Afghanistan as long as you are not an active participant."

TFG Global is pleased that this new web site will become an active insurance portal for people in search of insurance for Afghanistan. TFG Global has the experience, knowledge and insurance contacts available to source insurance for companies and individuals operating in Afghanistan.
