By Princeton Premier

Dated: Jul 18, 2008

Brandy Jo Ford, sales and recruiting manager of ProTech Systems Group, has been chosen for inclusion in the 2008-2009 Princeton Premier Registry.

Brandy Jo Ford is the sales and recruiting manager of ProTech Systems Group, a company that provides business process improvement, placement services and technology for short and long term projects on a contractual basis. As sales and recruiting manager, Brandy is primarily responsible for recruiting and pairing suitable applicants with compatible clients. She joined ProTech Systems Group in 2006, bringing more than a decade of experience in organization and administration. Prior to assuming her current role, Brandy was in restaurant management, an occupation that developed her skills in customer relations and networking. Presently, she maintains memberships with several industry associations such as NAPS and the Arkansas Chamber of Commerce. Brandy is equally attentive to altruistic pursuits, is active within the community and supports organizations that benefit the environment. In her spare time, Brandy enjoys reading, time with family and the arts.

In recognition of an exemplary career as sales and recruiting manager of ProTech Systems Group, Brandy Jo Ford is being included in the 2008/2009 Princeton Premier Registry where she will be listed among the most accomplished business leaders and professionals from every industry around the globe.
