

Veretek Training Turns to Social Marketing

By Jesse Boland

Dated: Jul 20, 2008

Veretek Training Goes Social. Jesse Boland the lead generation specialist and trainer behind many highly ranked websites, announced trainings in the Veretek interactive conference rooms. Don't pay big bucks to get great social marketing training.

Recently, Veretek training turned to diversify their trainings, and look toward social marketing to generate more leads, and command a larger "sphere of influence" on the Internet. Check out Mr. Boland's Veretek training page and fill out the form at the bottom to register immediately for social marketing training:

Esteemed Internet marketer, lead generation specialist, and Veretek trainer, Jesse Boland has headed up the trainings. Boland says of social marketing: "It's widely misused by network marketers and MLMers who try to use social sites like Facebook and Myspace to pitch their business opportunities." Boland continues, "My intention is to help others see the power of social networking as a value driven business model that allows you to become an expert in whatever niche you want, to add value to the Internet by helping others before expecting a return" To learn much more about Veretek Training go to: <http://www.squidoo.com/veretek-training>

Boland has scheduled a 10 week course on "Web 2.0 Strategies," that runs for the next 8 weeks every Friday at 4PM EST in his live interactive Veretek training room. The cost to attend is a willingness to learn and implement the strategies Boland is training on.
