For those who travel often, a multi-trip travel insurance plan is their best option for travel insurance. A multi-trip travel insurance plan can offer significant yearly savings and convenience if you travel several times per year.

If you are a person who travels often, then getting travel medical and evacuation insurance on an annual multi-trip basis is a must. Most travel insurance plans are sold on single trip basis, but you can obtain an annual travel insurance plan which can cover multiple trips throughout the year up to 1 month per trip. David Tompkins, President of TFG Global Insurance Solutions Ltd. and owner of TFG Global Travel Insurance.com at:

states that "if you travel 2 or more times per year, a multi-trip travel insurance plan is your best bet. You can save quite a bit of premium by purchasing an annual plan which can cover you for unlimited number of trips up to 1 month each trip. It also makes it very convenient as you don't have to remember to purchase travel insurance each time you go. I have seen many people leave on trips without purchasing travel insurance and get into serious difficulties when they get sick. A multi-trip plan can avoid this unfortunate situation altogether as you only have to purchase travel insurance once per year."

An annual travel insurance plans is a great policy for executives who travel often for business. Such multi-trip plans can be purchased from TFG Global Travel Insurance.com on group and individual basis. A group plan will offer savings to companies.
