July 25, 2008 - PRLog -- Jireh Premium Designer Jeans is manufactured in Bolivia, South America and is fairly new to and is now expanding to the USA. Featured on a television show, Despierta America, Jireh Jeans is shown to naturally lift the buttocks while shaping it without padding. It also enhances the wearer's existing body shape even if one has just a little one.

Encouraging customer satisfaction, I believe Jireh Jeans will someday become a sought after brand. It's highly recommended that you try a pair. Buy in bulk to carry in your retail outlets! You will be pleased with this brand as it's reasonably priced for affordability.
