

Four Whole Weeks Aligns With Alonce Music Agency

By CA2NY Music Media - Alonce Music Agency

Dated: Jul 26, 2008

Four Whole Weeks is known for songs like "Broken Pisces" and "Blank Space", which show the band's influence from great groups like Foo Figthers and Muse.

From headliners to brand new indie artists, Alonce Music Agency continues their coalition with gifted artists. Radiant bands like Four Whole Weeks, based in Los Angeles, just recently matched their vision with that of the complete artist development firm, Alonce Music Agency.

Talented 24 year old Jordan Daum, who is the front man of Four Whole Weeks, decided that now is the best time to launch his career and propel it to the next level. Even though the band has not been playing very long together, Four Whole Weeks has already developed a stunning fan base with listeners looking for more unique music.

Four Whole Weeks is known for songs like "Broken Pisces" and "Blank Space", which show the band's influence from great groups like Foo Figthers and Muse.

Alonce Music Agency developed interest into Jordan Daum's group, Four Whole Weeks, in the end of May this year. After careful review from both parties, Four Whole Weeks and Alonce Music Agency came to the conclusion that they could form a powerful alliance to further the band's music industry success.

"Jordan has an awesome energy," said Cali Sky, who is a top level executive within Alonce Music Agency. "When speaking with Jordan, it was not hard to notice his passion for music and his drive to be successful within the music industry."

Four Whole Weeks is expected to make a major breakout by the end of 2008. With interest being developed from all over the music industry, expect to hear songs like "Broken Pisces" and "Blank Space" on a local radio station near you.
