The course lasts 24 weeks, and will be live each Wednesday at 8pm Eastern Time.

What will the course give to its students?

A firm basis in authentic Kabbalah methodology, providing a deep understanding of nature, the world, and who mankind really is.

Practical tools with which to take control of every challenge in life by learning the real rules of the game.

A unique illumination that can be sensed only by the study of authentic Kabbalah texts, an illumination that reveals and helps student realize life's true purpose.

What is in the course?

24 weeks of graduated study made simple, starting with fundamentals and progressing through technical aspects of the structure and inner nature of the force and law shaping our lives. Student will learn how to connect with this force, and use it for student's and humanity's benefit.

Student will discover what Kabbalah is and isn't, how it defines our perception of reality, what determines our feelings of pleasure and pain and how to correct the source of suffering, how to understand the "language of the Kabbalists" – what the texts are actually talking about, what free will is and how to attain it.

Instruction on how to study from authentic Kabbalah texts.

Studies are according to the schedule or at student's convenience by downloading archived lessons.

Educational forum for direct personal answers by instructors to student's questions as they arise in the study.

Free authentic texts and supporting books.

Free access to a virtual community of other students of Kabbalah.

A list of just some topics covered:

Language of Branches
Perceiving the Upper World
The Reason for Suffering
Secrets of the Universe
Template of Creation
The 6th Sense. The Screen
Free Will
Perception of Reality
Perception by Opposites
True Prayer
