

Skillpath and CompuMaster Seminars Updated Through January 2009

By SeminarInformation.com

Dated: Aug 11, 2008

Visitors to SeminarInformation.com can now find and register for Skillpath and CompuMaster seminars through January 2009.

www.SeminarInformation.com has just updated it's website, the largest database of seminars and conferences on the Internet. Dates and locations for seminars presented by Skillpath and Compumaster have been added through January of 2009.

The user-friendly website offers visitors the opportunity to find a seminar by title, sponsor, keyword, date, locations or any combination. Once a user has found the seminar they can then read a complete outline of the course and then register online or by phone at 877-SEM-INFO.

Along with seminars from this sponsor the website also lists thousands of seminars by over 600 seminar sponsors including National Seminars, Cross Country Education, Padgett Thompson, the American Management Association, Cornell University, UCLA, Lorman, Learning Tree International, Global Knowledge, Boston University and MIS.

Seminar experts are on hand to answer any questions, make suggestions and take registrations. They can also arrange to have seminars brought onsite for larger groups.
