Dated: Aug 13, 2008

Local Orlando Private Investigator, Donna Smith, is a member of a Nationwide network of women Investigators working together to solve previously unsolved major crimes. WE television documents their success Friday August 15, 2008 at 10pm on WE.

Donna Smith, President and CEO of All Pro Legal Investigations in Orlando, Florida, is a Florida licensed Private Investigator; Executive and Personal Protection Specialist (bodyguard) FAA Certified Flight Attendant - and a member of the F.L.I.P. Team.

What is F.L.I.P.?

F.L.I.P., which stands for Female Legal & Investigative Professionals, is an elite group of female Licensed Private Investigators who collaborate with each other – and Law Enforcement – to solve previously unsolved crimes Nationwide. Think of an all-girl FBI, only more clever and determined.

What Have They Done?

In the premiere episode of “F.L.I.P. Mysteries: Women on the Case” shown Friday August 15, 2008 at 10pm | 9c on the WE Channel, the newly formed F.L.I.P. team identifies the victim of a Baltimore, Maryland homicide from details on a shirt found at the crime scene. The victim had gone unidentified for years but F.L.I.P. has breathed new life into the investigation, prompting the Baltimore Police to renew its efforts to solve what is now clearly a homicide. Most importantly, a family is finally able put its beloved mother, sister and daughter to rest.

From there the team moves on to Quincy, Massachusetts (Boston area) to begin work on a “ticking clock” case. FLIP must quickly locate and identify the obviously disturbed individual responsible for making graphic kidnap threats against young children and leaving terrifying notes on the porches of their homes. The F.L.I.P. team responded to this imminent threat with a handwriting expert, internet researchers, and seasoned investigators, who were able to catch the stalker just hours before he was planning to make good on his threats.

Who are the members of F.L.I.P.?

In this episode, we meet Michele Dawn, Rancho Attorney Service (California) aka "RASCAL" as well as other members of the team including Vicki Siedow, Siedow & Associates Investigations and FLIP Coordinator (Glendale, CA), Anne LaJeunesse (Manhattan Beach, CA) Tina Elkins and Lori Wilkins (Georgia), and Peggy Walla (Texas).

Local Orlando F.L.I.P. member, Donna Smith, is a Stuart (Martin County) Florida native and a long time member of the U.S. Diplomatic Security Service Overseas Security Advisory Council . Ms. Smith holds both a Florida Security Agency License as well as a Florida Private Investigator Agency License and is an FAA Certified Flight Attendant.

With far reaching experience from Security Consultant in France during the riots of 2005 to Conducting, Managing and Supervising complex, multiple subject Investigations Worldwide, Ms Smith brings over 15 years experience to meet the most challenging cases.

Ms Smith is available for Security Consultation and Select Investigations throughout Florida and Internationally. Call 407/382.0700 for more information or email donna@all-pro-legal.com
