

Farewell at the Olympics, Beijing 2008

By M. Glasgow, MG Associates, Inc

Dated: Aug 17, 2008

When the Olympians say au revoir, Hello to you World would like that they each athlete would say it in the language of 80 countries of the more than 192 countries around the world represented at the Olympics in Beijing, China, 2008

Connect, communicate, create a better world with hellos. Hellos from the more than 192 countries on the planet create a hub around which we can learn about life and culture in the different countries

Ms L. Winters, Healer, says it best "Brilliant! A simple hello opens so many doors, especially , to each of our hearts. Our hello is the start of a connecting process; the beginning of understanding; the opening of communications; a profound step into UNITY. Bravo Thank You! "

Muriel Glasgow has lived this during her more than three decades at the United Nations, and in the years after her early retirement in 1999.

Seemingly effortlessly, yet with tremendous effort, she is constantly on the move to work for the common good and to create a better world for future generations. Cognizant of the lack of knowledge of most of the planet of how the other half lives, she has developed the project recently approved by American Express as being innovative, achievable and having global impact.

Manish Gupta says that the project is "a very good idea, for India, Africa, South America and all the third world countries"

HELLO TO YOU WORLD collects a series of hellos from around the world, from the 192 countries which are member states of the United Nations, and counting, and from the hub of hellos takes you into the lives and culture of these nations.

"Hello to you World" is such a remarkable concept for people across the world to express heir countries unique greetings. I think it is another way for people to know the existence of the diverse languages and countries of our world. Good idea " says E. Cobblah, intern at the UN.

It is amazing what we don't know, yet more amazing what we don't know that we don't know. Knowledge is the key to the beginning of tolerance and understanding. Knowing about each other helps us reduce the tension that could build through a field of ignorance.

Open the doors to a country with a greeting which takes you further into the life and culture with information on is flags, its money, its music, its food, its health behaviour, its educational system...issues which can affect each of the rest of the world.

NOMINATE HELLO TO YOU WORLD HERE

<http://www.membersproject.com/project/promote/O3YPNO>

###

Provides visionary orientation and generates ideas for businesses and not-for-profits, using more than 3 decades as an international humanitarian as a backdrop for providing assistance and consultation

Category Education, Environment, Lifestyle

Tags hello to you world, american express, united nations, members project, Education, Beijing, olympics, life and culture

Email Click to email author

Phone 212 826 9697

Address east 54th street

City/Town manhattan

State/Province New York

Zip 10022

Country United States