Explore Talent, the world's largest talent community, hits a historic milestone of 2 million members.

Explore Talent's popularity in the industry comes from the amount of auditions and casting calls listed on the website. At any given time there are over 30,000 auditions, jobs and casting calls listed.

In the last year the Explore Talent website underwent a face lift and many new services were added for members. Explore Talent recently added musicians to their list of talent and expanded its media offerings to include music & video. Musicians, dancers, actors, models and even crew can create a free online interactive portfolio with samples of their work in the form of photos, videos and audio files.

Explore Talent has streamlined their site and has made the process of creating an online portfolio quick and painless. Don Hinder, Marketing Director of Explore Talent had this to say regarding service expansion " We wanted to add features that represent today's electronic information age, yet, keep the portfolio creation process simple and quick for members. We believe we accomplished our goals. A musician can come to our site and create an online showroom of his music in as little as a few minutes. Our system is very intuitive."

"The amazing growth we have seen shows how dedicated we are to continually adding new services to meet our members' needs and 2 Million members means we're doing something right." added Don Hinder.
