San Diego—944 Magazine has awarded Concierge At Large, Inc. their prestigious Platinum Award for best concierge service in their August 2008 issue. The staff at 944 San Diego worked diligently to pick their choice of best businesses, venues, events and people making San Diego tick. Under the “High Rollin” category, Concierge At Large, Inc. was deemed a company to ‘Make our life easier with personal concierge service’. This Platinum Award issue honoring these hand-picked favorites is to be considered the social bible for the next year on best bets for where to eat, drink, party, shop, get pampered, escape, and blow your paycheck rediscovering San Diego.

“I was very excited to learn we had received this award,” said Karen Somers, Director of Marketing for Concierge At Large, Inc. “We are honored to be selected by the 944 team to be a part of this ultimate city guide.” Concierge At Large, Inc., a San Diego based company, has enjoyed their business achievement for more than 11 years. “We are truly the pioneer in our industry and appreciate being recognized along with the other award winners who are successful in the San Diego business community as well,” added Somers.

944 San Diego is celebrating five years in publication this month. Beginning as a glossy nightlife review, 944 has become a flashy lifestyle monthly magazine covering fashion, music, entertainment, culture, dining and progressive players in the local business world. 944 prides itself on promoting locally owned businesses through editorial and serving as the authority on what’s new and fresh in the community.

San Diego based Concierge At Large, Inc. is the longest operating luxury concierge services firm in the United States. Founded in 1997, the firm is headed by industry leader Cynthia D.
